

Culturally Responsive
Approach to Engaging Hispanic/Latinx Immigrants in Mental Health Services When In Acute Crisis
Dr. Ida Roldán, LCSW

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

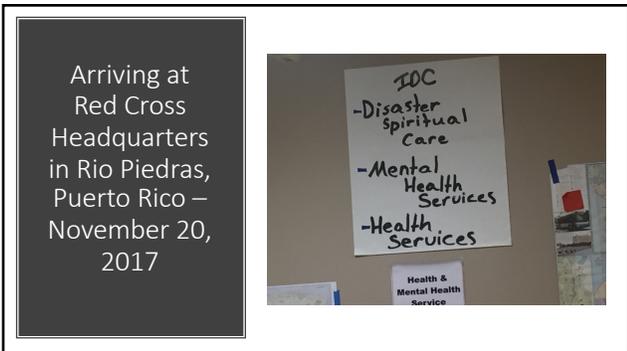

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Blue
Highlighted
Area – Mental Health Team

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Morning Preparations for Team

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

What we Found ----
Who we Found

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Holding and Comfort

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Religiosity and Hope

---

---

---

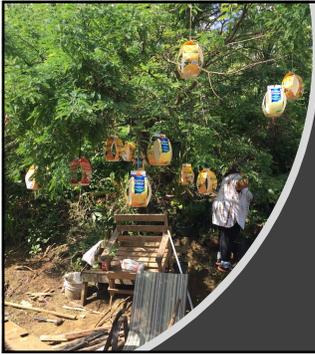

---

---

---

---

---

Ingenuity, Creativity & Hope

Woman decorated the only tree left standing with OJ containers

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Resiliency and Resistance
Puerto Rico – July 22, 2019

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Clinical Work with Traumatized Immigrants: Bias and Privilege

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

2018 U.S. Census Bureau Statistics

- Hispanics/Latinx receiving a Bachelor's Degree

1.3%

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

2018 U.S. Census Bureau Statistics

- Hispanics/ Latinx receiving a Master's Degree

.4%

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

2018 U.S. Census Bureau Statistics

• Hispanics/Latinx receiving a Doctoral Degree

.07%

---

---

---

---

---

---

---