

72 Events

86% Most attendees Strongly Agreed or Agreed that they would use the information gained

91% Most attendees were Satisfied or Very Satisfied with the overall quality of the event

92% Most attendees Strongly Agreed or Agreed that they expected this event to benefit their professional development

**Includes data from all event types, including online courses.*

Race	% Reached n=4517
African American	35%
American Indian/Alaska Native	1%
Asian	2%
White	37%
Hispanic/Latino	9%
Mixed Race/Other/Unknown	16%

**Includes data from GPRA'd events, webinar products, and available registration data*

Supplement Highlights:
School-Based Supplement:
20 events
2,923 participants

FY22 Products:

“Technology: Serving the “Silver Tsunami” On A Silver Platter”

“Rites & Rituals - Bringing a Cultural Lens to Positive Youth Development for Black Girls”

“Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion: Resources for Organizations & Front Line Staff”

“Contingency Management— Practical Applications for Mental Health Practitioners”

Religion, Spirituality and Mental Health

• Online HealthKnowledge Course •

Through this course mental health and religious professionals can learn strategies for integrating religion/spirituality into their practice in a way that aligns with client preferences and professional ethics. The course's three modules address research, clinical applications, and collaborations between mental health and religious professionals.

MHTTC SAMHSA THE ANNAPOLIS CALIBRATION CENTER

This new 1.5 hour course focuses on integrating religion and spirituality into mental health services and supports for mental health and religious professionals.

Saving Young Black Lives: Reversing Suicide Trends

An 8-part limited-series podcast on suicide amongst African-American youth produced in partnership with the New York University McSilver Institute for Poverty Policy and Research

Reimagining Wellness: Preventing Suicide Among Black Boys

4-Part Vignette Series

The CE MHTTC partnered with media company Never Whisper Justice to produce Reimagining Wellness: Preventing Suicide Among Black Boys, a new four-part vignette series that addresses this acute trend.

These short films feature interviews with experts who share their unique perspectives on improving well-being and reducing mental health disparities among Black male youth.

