

Hispanic and Latino Behavioral Health Needs in the 21st Century

Keynote Presentation:

Adverse Childhood Experiences: Undocumented Children

Bernardo Ng, MD, DFAPA

Medical Director, Sun Valley Behavioral and Research Centers

President, American Society of Hispanic Psychiatry

Topics include:

Thursday, August 1, 2019

Promotora Model and its Application for Mental Health

Friday, August 2, 2019

Integrated Behavioral Health / Integrated Care

Suicide Prevention among Hispanic and Latino Youth

Trauma/Stress in the Latino Population

Bullying Trauma / stress in Schools

Impact of Stress and Domestic Violence

Mental Health Disorders in Aging Hispanic Populations

Grand Geneva
Hotel
Lake Geneva, WI

Thursday, August 1, 2019

Friday, August 2, 2019

8:30AM – 4:30PM

Who Should Attend?

Social Workers, Counselors, Outreach Workers, Educators, Prevention Specialists, Criminal Justice Professionals, Community Leaders, Members of Faith Communities, and anyone interested in health equity and inclusion in behavioral health

Cost:

Registration is free! Attendees are responsible for their lodging and meal costs.

Lodging

Stay at the Grand Geneva, one of the Midwest's top resorts, for the special symposium rate of $82.00 (single) or $112 (double) /night, plus tax!

Register Today: Click Here!

For more information, contact Alfredo Cerrato at alfredo.cerrato@wisc.edu