

Upcoming Webinar

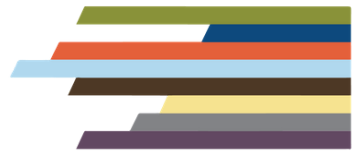

ENGAGING AMERICAN INDIAN/ ALASKA NATIVE (AI/AN) RELATIVES IN PSYCHOTHERAPY

DESCRIPTION: Developing cultural competence is an aspirational journey. This training will support your efforts to increase your understanding of Native culture. The training will also provide clinicians with practical tips for improving engagement with this population, in order to improve clinical outcomes with your American Indian/Alaska Native clients.

Thursday, July 22nd. 12pm - 1pm CT

Register HERE

SPEAKER:

John Jewett (he/him) member of the Oglala Lakota Nation and member of the Advisory Council for the Native Center for Behavioral Health. He's a Board Certified Clinical Counselor and Certified Addictions Specialist, has spent his entire psychotherapy career in Indian Country and is currently practicing at the Indian Health Service in Albuquerque, NM.

REMINDERS

- You might need to open a Zoom account to access the webinar.
- This webinar will be recorded and be presented in English.
- Captioning and other interpretation services are available upon request. Please contact ari.acosta@austin.utexas.edu at least 3 days in advance for any accessibility arrangements.

