

How do you think your work may intersect with suicide prevention?

Everywhere

Bridging gaps in infrastructure

We fund suicide prevention programs

The community

Funding for agencies

Prevention

Schools

Behavioral intervention/Prevention work

How do you think your work may intersect with suicide prevention?

increasing 988 capacity
at the state level

Deliver lessons at high school level. Help design curriculum scope and sequence.

Community inclusion and building a life worth living.

The state

Bridging the gap

QPR trainings, prevention

BH treatment

Adolescent SUD services

How do you think your work may intersect with suicide prevention?

Assessment

Explaining mental health better to communities

Increasing school employees awareness

Prevention, intervention, postvention

Assessment

Creating focus areas for the state

I work with middle schoolers

Advocacy for change in schools for younger kids.

How do you think your work may intersect with suicide prevention?

All unserved communities

I work in the regional offices, so I am looking at outreach to local organizations dedicated to suicide prevention

behavioral intervention/prevention work

Prevention efforts, and response at all levels

Tribal community

Education , direct intervention

education and training of our staff

My role is as a self-directed harm prevention specialist working specifically in primary prevention so my role is all around suicide prevention

How do you think your work may intersect with suicide prevention?

Building public health approaches to preventing suicide

Quality Improvement of Processes

LGBTQIA population

Designing policy and assisting with implementation

Working one -on-one with high school students

988 media and studies

prevention

at crisis walk-in clinic

How do you think your work may intersect with suicide prevention?

Funding and increasing our ability to meet call volume within 988

Design Interventions

drop in youth centers

I am a school counselor so I am front line for prevention

Prevention, programming,

Prevention

Behavioral intervention

Rural support

How do you think your work may intersect with suicide prevention?

Liaison to suicide prevention coalitions

Safety planning

Educating adults

resources

ASIST

We deliver Youth Mental Health First Aid in the community.

Education

INTAKE ASSESSMENT

How do you think your work may intersect with suicide prevention?

serving students,
prevention

Schools

School Counselor, work with kids

Working with justice-
impacted population

Reducing Trauma

Work place

Suicide assessments &
treating suicidality

Afterschool programming, providing a safe space with trusted adults

How do you think your work may intersect with suicide prevention?

Implementing the Zero Suicide framework: Screening, assessment, safety planning, suicide care pathways

Collaborating with local behavioral health agency on systems for referral and easing communication for risk management

Social emotional learning, trauma informed practices

Screening and referring college students educating college faculty and staff on warning signs and referral resources

Assessment and intervention training

Trauma informed practices and a harm reduction model

Social work with persons who are at risk for or have STDs/HIV or Hepatitis

Serving high school students in a rural community.

How do you think your work may intersect with suicide prevention?

Doing QPR training

Rural resources

I think all are important in all areas

Help reduce the stigma

Focusing on the problems

I'm becoming more aware of other peoples struggles.