

What is one key step you heard Utah take to build their suicide prevention infrastructure?

County Based Providers

Talked to families impacted

Medical Examiners Office

Creating a strong foundation specific to suicide prevention

Clear guidelines that outlast current administration

Partnership with UofU and Intermountain Healthcare

Speak with families with lived exp

Discussed with survivors of suicide loss

What is one key step you heard Utah take to build their suicide prevention infrastructure?

Identify key people who focus on this topic

Dual mode advocacy: data for heads and stories for hearts

personnel and funding

Work with public and private institutions for learning.

Significant funding investment

Crisis Centers

speaking with families impacted

Talk to families

What is one key step you heard Utah take to build their suicide prevention infrastructure?

reaching families for support

Collaboration at multiple levels

Community support

Increased infrastructure

Partner w/UH and dedicated staff

Budgeting and Increased Funding

BH personal in private health offices

Involving families with firsthand experiences

What is one key step you heard Utah take to build their suicide prevention infrastructure?

Allocating resources

Establish policies

significant funding, collaboration, and educating the public.

Designated Personnel

Involving the stakeholders

Training enough resources and they have enough funds

Focus on what is needed and prevention

Tsled to families impacted by suicide/mental health issues.